

integrated leak detection

Where Does Your Water Flow?

Leaks represent more than lost revenue and water. Leaks weaken infrastructure, contribute to main breaks, increase costs and create conditions for cross-contamination.

With Integrated Leak Detection Services from Wachs Water Services, be confident in your ability to locate leaks while performing condition assessment services. Recommendations on how best to eliminate leaks will be accurate and based upon our best practices.

We use the latest technology managed by the most experienced professionals in the field.